

TRACY K

GENRE:

Blues/Roots/Jazz/Traditional Country

SET-UP:

Duo, 4-5 piece band, Featured Soloist

HOMETOWN:

Beausejour, Manitoba, Canada

“A rich, powerful vocalist and harmonica player of the highest order” (Zicazine 2016) Tracy K’s exceptional stage presence is anchored by her high energy music in contemporary and traditional Roots styles. She is Canada’s only female award winning harmonica player and her latest release ‘What’s the Rush?’ went to number one and remained charting for months on Canadian Roots and Blues charts.

Tracy K has brought crowds to their feet at Jazz, Blues and Folk festivals. As duo and band she’s shared A-list playbills from Canada to the Caribbean and was a featured performer with the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra. Tracy K was featured at the Toronto Blues Society’s Harmonica Workshop, Women’s Blues Revue, and won First Runner Up in their Talent Search. Some of her seven awards include Winnipeg Blues.com Female Vocalist and Harmonica Player of the Year. Tracy K was experienced twice as a quarter finalist in the International Blues Challenge in Memphis, TN, in band and solo/duo categories.

More recently Tracy K appears on 2015 Ruf Records 'Blues Harp Women' and 'Mary4Music's Keeping the Blues Alive Vol.6'. An accomplished songwriter, two of her songs won International Songwriting Competition awards and an Ontario Independent Music Award for Best Blues. Tracy K’s SOCAN catalogue boasts a song for the Hollywood film "Scared Silent" and for CBC’s Canada Reads - Ontario Rocks. Her music is heard internationally on radio and satellite, and on acclaimed shows like CBC’s Saturday Night Blues and features like Canada Live.

Although 'What’s the Rush?’ is only her fourth solo release in her substantial career she’s been anything but stagnate. Recently Tracy K and her band have been touring through the northern US. She’s a class act with the energy of someone half her age, and a life’s worth of experience under her belt to sing about.

"As a singer Tracy K is like Bonnie Raitt and Koko Taylor, and she blows some of the best blues harp this side of Little Walter." - Rock Doctor, Gonzo Okanagan 2016

"This is outdoor-festival music, tailor-made for a big stage and bigger crowd. If you’re in a hurry to hear powerhouse acoustic and electric blues, try Tracy K and her posse!" - Rainey Wetnight, Blues Blast Magazine, 2017
